HOPS

By States, 1915-69

Acreage, Yield, Production, Disposition, Value, Stocks

This bulletin brings together all estimates of hops prepared by the Crop Reporting Board, Statistical Reporting Service, for the last 55 years, beginning with 1915. This bulletin supersedes Statistical Bulletin No. 225, "Hops by States, 1915-56--Acreage, Yield, Production, Disposition, Value, and Stocks".

Production of hops is defined as the total quantity produced on the vines exclusive of losses from natural causes. The part of the crop lost because of weather damage and ordinary waste is not included in the production estimates. Mature hops left on the vines because of low prices or other economic conditions are included in the figures on production. Also included in the production estimates are mature hops -- whether harvested or not -- that were not salable under a marketing agreement or marketing order.

Value of production and sales are the season's average price times production and sales by States. For the United States, production and value are the sum of the State estimates and the season average price is derived.
